Policy #3: Past Members Rejoining RMGC

A. General.

There are occasions when members of RMGC cease to be members but subsequently wish to rejoin the Club. The terms and conditions under which such applications will be considered are listed below.

B. Full, Junior, Student, Young Adult Members.

If a member of the RMGC resigns from the Club then he/she is able to return with the same rights earned at the date of his/her resignation, providing he/she:

1. Had been a member in good standing.
2. Had left either by sending a letter of resignation or by giving the correct notice.
3. Had been a fully paid-up member of the Marsa Sports Club and the RMGC.
4. Had been a Full, Junior, Student and/or Young Adult Member of the RMGC for not less than 24 months.
5. Is seeking to return at least 12 months after and within 5 years of resigning from the Club.

C. Country Members.

The rights afforded a Full Member of RMGC as described in section B above do not apply to Country Members should they apply to rejoin.

D. Membership suspended on medical grounds.

If membership was not withdrawn or revoked but was merely suspended on medical grounds, then on return to good health and/or fitness he/she may resume membership with all rights reinstated at the discretion of the BOM.

E. Members suspended on disciplinary matters

If a member is excluded prior to or suspended as a result of a disciplinary hearing, he/she loses all rights with immediate effect to use the golf course, club house or other RMGC facilities.
